trict Attorney Jerome seemed somewhat irritable and was consistently thereafter involved in wordy clashes with members of the commission.

His urgent manner of arguing that he had a right to adduce additional testimony before the commission rendered its verdict was generally regarded as a concession that Thaw had made a favorable impression during his long examination.

During the district attorney's cross-examination it was said Thaw comforted himself most creditably and answered Mr. Jerome's sharp-pointed questions with calmness and deliberation. Thaw appeared in brilliant spirits when the public was allowed to enter the courtroom where the commission was sitting. To a reporter who leaned over and congratulated him on the showing he had made, Thaw replied: "Thank you very much but I thought that was to be kept a secret."

Thaw's attorneys expressed themselves as entirely satisfied with the final stages of their client's severe examination. Altogether he was on his stand about six hours, counting Thursday's session of the commission.

Couldn't Shake Thaw. Mr. Jerome's cross-examination of the attorney declared did not shake Thaw in the least. Mr. Jerome declined to discuss the hearings in any way whatsoever.

He seemed much disappointed, however, at the ruling which shut out Dr. Hamilton's testimony, the physician having already gone on record as saying that Thaw is a paranoiac, with but a slight chance of recovery.

During the public session this afternoon the commission examined four prison guards, one of them Thaw's personal warder in the courtroom, and a visiting physician to the Tombs.

All declared that Thaw had acted rationally ever since his incarceration. One of the guards said Thaw had a haunted look in his eyes when he first came to the Tombs, but it began to disappear last September.

Attorneys Delmas and Harridge also took the stand. They declared Thaw had fully comprehended every phase of his trial, and had made helpful suggestions from time to time. District Attorney Jerome asked Mr. Harridge if Thaw had repeatedly expressed a desire to address the court. Mr. Harridge said he could recall no such instance.

Asked if his associate counsel had not informed him of Thaw's wishes along this line, Mr. Harridge was silenced by an objection from Attorney Gleason, which was sustained by the commission.

Mr. Jerome thereupon said he would undertake no further cross-examination of counsel.

Why Was McGuire Absent? Chairman McClure asked Mr. Jerome why Dr. McGuire, the regular Tombs prison physician, had not been produced before the commission. Mr. Jerome said he had not seen the physician.

"We saw him last at the district attorney's office," interposed Attorney Harridge, "and we supposed he would surely be here."

A messenger was sent to summon the doctor, but he could not be found. "Why has he absented himself?" inquired Mr. McClure, looking from one counsel to another. No answer was forthcoming, and the chairman directed that the doctor be subpoenaed for next Tuesday, at the same time reminding District Attorney Jerome that, as he had made the suggestion on the court record as to Thaw's present insanity, the burden of proof in support of that proposition rests with him.

During the executive session of the commission to-day it was learned that Thaw was called over nearly every detail of his trial, and was asked regarding the testimony offered by various witnesses as to the effect he thought this testimony might have on a jury and the general tenor of the court's rulings on the broader points of law.

On cross-examination, Mr. Jerome sought to question Thaw regarding the letters he wrote to Banker J. Dennison Lyon, of Pittsburg, since the tragedy on the Madison Square Roof Garden. Mr. Jerome said he based his contention as to Thaw's present insanity partly on these letters. The commission ruled that the letters could not be accepted as evidence. Mr. Jerome argued the point at some length, but could not induce the commission to see the matter in the light which he viewed it.

That Mr. Jerome had been in frequent clashes with the commission even during the secret session was apparent from the tense feeling which existed after the doors had been thrown open.

MAN ILL WITH FRIGHT AT LESLIE MURDER TRIAL

CHICAGO, ILL., March 30.—Leonard Leopold, one of the defendants in the Margaret Leslie murder trial, was called to the stand again to-day for cross-examination, but before many questions could be asked of him, he fainted and fell from the witness chair. The court proceedings were postponed to await an improvement in his physical condition. Leopold fainted yesterday after making a sudden remark to the witness stand. He was ill the greater part of the night, but to-day declared that he felt able to take the stand. At the order of the court, a physician was summoned to examine Leopold. An hour later the physician reported that Leopold was suffering from sheer fright and terror, and that he would not be able to appear in court during the day. "I understand that condition," replied Judge Ball, "I felt like that several times during the Civil war." The trial was then adjourned until Monday.

Railroad Men Hold Meeting and Declare That Company Must Meet Demands.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Chairman Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce commission, and Charles P. Neill, labor commissioner, arrived here to-day from Washington, to offer their good services in settling the dispute between the Western Railway Union and the members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and of the Order of Railway Conductors. Meeting did not begin until late in the afternoon. The representatives of the men, Grand Chief Morsey, of the Trainmen, and Chief Conductor Farrell, of the Conductors, declared that it was not in their power to accept less than the men had asked. The men were overjoyed at the proposition to be considered in the meeting, and the vote was overwhelmingly in favor of a strike unless the demands of the men were granted.

GREATEST CROWD IN HISTORY OF CAMP

Veterans Coming to Richmond by Trainload from Every Direction.

Almost every mail brings additional letters telling of the enormous crowds which purpose coming to Richmond to attend the Confederate Reunion, and it begins to look now as if the city will be taxed to the uttermost to accommodate all its guests.

On every side it is predicted that the attendance at the meetings of the Grand Camp will be the largest ever known in the history of the organization. No one can explain just why this is, unless it be the sentiment which draws the old soldiers to the former capital of the Confederacy, or the fact that many of the strangers will go on from Richmond to the Jamestown Exposition.

It is said that the States of North Carolina, Kentucky and Texas will send the largest delegations. South Florida also will not be without her representation. From Louisville alone, five trainloads of people will be sent to Virginia, and the Lone Star State will send Richmond hundreds of her old soldiers.

Yesterday's contributions to the reunion fund were as follows:

BREWERS WILL FIGHT UNION

Send Notice to Strikers That if Work Is Not Resumed Open Shop Will Be Declared.

ARE WILLING TO NEGOTIATE

Officers of Big Breweries Don Overalls and Get Down to Hard Work.

ST. LOUIS, MO., March 30.—As a result of a conference of officials representing all St. Louis breweries to consider the strike situation, the following telegram was sent this evening, as an ultimatum, to the headquarters of the United Brewery Workers' Union in Cincinnati, and a similar communication was sent to the conference of strikers.

"Unless your members resume work Monday morning in all local breweries in St. Louis, East St. Louis and Granite City, pending negotiations, we will be compelled to declare an open shop so far as the striking brewery workers' unions are concerned. This step will be forced upon us, not by choice, but by prevailing unfair conditions."

This was signed by Philip Stock, as "secretary of the St. Louis Brewers' Association."

The following resolution was adopted at the brewers' conference:

"We desire to go on record that any difference between the old terms and the new demands will be arbitrated, provided the men resume work on or before Monday morning next."

This was over 1000 employees of the St. Louis breweries on strike to enforce demands for increased wages, the brewing of beer has come to a standstill in St. Louis.

George K. Busch, cousin of August Busch, and nephew of Adolphus Busch, appeared at the Anheuser Busch brewery to-day, faithfully attired, and ready to continue his regular work as "entertainer."

"I'll introduce you to a shoveler and a coal-pit. We've got to keep these boilers hot," and George K. Busch immediately fell to work with the shovel. Augustus Busch, who is vice president of the concern, stated he will himself act as a malster. He donned overalls and went to work.

MORE ARRESTS IN CHURCH HILL CASE

At the Police Court yesterday morning the seven young negroes who were arrested Friday night in the vicinity of Twenty-ninth and P Streets, were ordered to be held until April 10th. They are charged with disorderly conduct and interfering with the police in the discharge of their duty. The story of the affair, told in yesterday's paper, and in brief, that a large party of negroes have organized themselves into a band and company, and while drilling in the streets of Church Hill created much disorder. When one of the leaders was arrested on Friday night by the police, the officers were assaulted and struck on the head with a stone. A large detail of policemen went to the scene of the disturbance, and seven of the delinquents were taken in charge. The roll-book of the company was captured, and the reason of the arrest of the officers yesterday was to give the officers time to inquire further into the matter and secure others who were engaged in the disturbance.

ITALIAN BALLOONS ENTERED TOO LATE

ST. LOUIS, MO., March 30.—Latecomers in making entries will bar Italian balloons from participation in the international balloon race for the Gordon-Bennett Cup to be held here in October. This is the decision of the International Aeronautic Federation, which has had the case under advisement. Plans are moving rapidly for the big race. The Aero Club has given official notification that it will furnish gas free to all contestants, and General Allen, of the War Department, has offered to furnish sufficient soldiers to adequately police the balloons during the time of the race. Arrangements are under way whereby foreign balloons are to be admitted free of duty in bond.

Champion Heavyweight Heart.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The largest human heart ever found was discovered to-day at an autopsy on the body of Bainbridge O. Stafford, who died last night in the Tombs prison. The organ weighed four pounds and two ounces, the normal weight of a human heart.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, therefore, when through neglect or other causes kidney trouble is permitted to continue, many fatal results are sure to follow.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys begin to get better they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince any one.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable curative power has been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine, you should have the best.

Dear Sir: Wilson, Conn., Feb. 13th, 1906.

"A man could not be in any worse condition than I was with kidney and bladder troubles. I suffered with several good doctors, and one physician told me I had Bright's Disease, and that I would not live over six months. Another told me it was gall stones. I had severe pains in my kidneys all the while could not sleep over, would be dizzy, could not lie down without some help me up; back was weak and pulled me down as thick as cream, and it would scald me something dreadfully. I am today, and I can prove it by acquaintance."

"I took Swamp-Root, and to-day I am a new man, and never felt better. All of my troubles have gone and show no signs of returning. I take my oath that Swamp-Root put me where I am to-day, and I can prove it by acquaintance."

Very truly yours,
E. H. RAND.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for EDITORIAL NOTE.—In order to prove the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. being about twelve to fourteen ounces. Stafford was arrested on a charge of perjury preferred by Brice & Co., of Baltimore, who alleged the conversion of stock valued at $1,000. His death was caused by a combination of lobular pneumonia, cardiac hypertrophy and chronic nephritis. The left lung was almost entirely shriveled up, the heart occupying nearly all the space which the lung should have had.

The heart will be placed in the museum of the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Western Union Announces a New Scale, Showing Twenty-Five Per Cent. Increase.

CHICAGO, ILL., March 30.—The Western Union Telegraph Company has announced a new scale of telegraph rates, effective May 1.

Where 40 cents has been charged for a message of ten words between Chicago and New York, it will be raised to 60 cents after April 1. The night rate between Chicago and New York has been increased from 30 to 40 cents, in other cases the increase is smaller.

Manager Stevens, of the Western Union office in this city, thinks the new rates announced to go into effect to-morrow will not affect the day business of the Richmond or other Virginia offices. "The night rate will probably be increased," he is very certain that one company would not make a new larger rate without having some understanding with the other.

Hon. Henry C. Stuart, of the State Corporation Commission, was seen last night, and asked what would be the effect of the new scale of telegraph rates so far as Virginia was concerned, and he said the present rates in this State would not be disturbed.

"The commission declared Mr. Stuart," formulated and put into effect a new schedule as of January 1, 1907, and the rates then fixed and since then in effect in Virginia cannot be raised. This new schedule applied to both companies lowered the rate on messages from forty cents to thirty cents, and on each additional word, to twenty-five cents for ten words and two cents for each additional word.

No alteration in interstate rates by the companies, according to Mr. Stuart, can affect the intrastate rates fixed for Virginia by the commission.

Concerning a statement that the Western Union office at Bristol had been moved to the Tennessee state in order to allow the company to apply the higher rate, Mr. Stuart said that such a thing had been on that side, but that the Virginia rate nevertheless applies, and will continue to do so.

TWO U. S. SUBMARINES LAUNCHED AT QUINCY

QUINCY, MASS., March 30.—The new submarine boats Viper and Tarantula, built for the United States navy, were launched to-day at the yards of the Portsmouth Shipbuilding Company. The launching was private. The two other submarines, the Cuttlefish and Octopus, are still at the yard here, as they have not yet had their official government trial. The contract calls for a speed of ten knots an hour on the surface and 8 1/2 knots when submerged.

It is understood that the City Finance Committee will render a favorable report at the next Council meeting Tuesday, April 3d, on the proposed creation of a municipal office to be known as a superintendent of streets. The official is to be appointed by the city attorney, and it is said, will practically act as an assistant.

Other matters of special importance to be considered by the Council at the meeting will be the Finance Committee's report on the proposed $5,000 appropriation to advertise the city at the Jamestown Exposition, and the plan to locate the proposed new public school building in Central Park.

TELEGRAPH RATES TAKE A JUMP

Manager Stevens, of the Western Union office in this city, thinks the new rates announced to go into effect to-morrow will not affect the day business of the Richmond or other Virginia offices. "The night rate will probably be increased," he is very certain that one company would not make a new larger rate without having some understanding with the other.
